VOTE OF VIRGINIA GIVEN IN DETAIL

Returns from All the Counties and Cities of the State.

Complete and incomplete returns received from the various sections of the State last night clearly foreshadow heavy Democratic majorities in both branches of the General Assembly as a result of yesterday's elections. Below will be found the returns by legislative districts.

ACCOMACK.

TASLEY, VA., November 5.—The Democratic nominee, H. T. Gunter, for the Senate; John B. Row and John T. Wilkins, for House of Delegates; Alfred J. Lilliston, county treasurer, and Lee B. Kellam, sheriff, were elected without opposition to-day.

ALBEMARLE AND CHARLOTTEVILLE.

CHARLOTTEVILLE, VA., November 5.—The vote in Albemarle and Charlottesville to-day was the smallest polled in years. The Democratic candidates—Nathaniel B. Early, for the Senate, and Dr. T. M. Dunn and H. H. Pitts, for the House of Delegates—had no opposition. Early's total vote in this, the Seventeenth Senatorial District, in hardly over 1,500. In Charlottesville, W. Sam Barnley was elected justice of the peace, and Branch Jeffries, constable.

ALEXANDRIA CITY AND COUNTY.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., November 5.—A large vote was polled in this city and county. Charles C. Carlin, of this city, Democratic nominee for Congress for Eighth District, secured 1,082 votes, and Ernest L. Howard, Republican, 42. R. E. Thorne, Democrat, 1,023; J. D. Deputon, Republican, 79. James R. Caton, Democrat, of this city, defeated Frank T. Evans, Republican, for House of Delegates by 723 majority. All the Democratic nominees carried the county by a large vote, and Crandall Mackay, Commonwealth's attorney of Alexandria county, defeated Charles E. Simms, Republican, by a large majority. Returns from throughout Eighth District indicate that Carlin is elected to Congress by a majority of over 6,000.

ALLEGHANY AND CRAIG.

CLINTON FORGE, VA., November 5.—In the election held here to-day for City Treasurer W. F. Tinsley defeated B. M. Fontaine by 199 majority after one of the warmest campaigns ever held in the city. Fontaine is chairman of the Democratic party, and it was his first entrance into politics, whereas Tinsley has a record of aspiring to several positions and never losing a single fight. Tinsley is a Democrat, and was formerly the head of his party in this city.

For Senator in the Seventh District King (Democrat) appears to have a lead over Bryant (Republican). King carried this city by 104 majority.
Returns are coming in slowly from the four counties composing the district, and it will be late to-morrow before the actual result will be known. King is known to have carried Craig and Bath by safe majorities. For the House of Delegates, for the County of Allegany and Craig, Speers (Democrat) has a good lead over Farrier (Republican). Speers will have at least 300 majority, if not more. Allen (Democrat) appears to be elected Commonwealth's attorney of Allegany county, he being the only one having opposition.

IRON GATE, VA., November 5.—For Senate, F. W. King (Democrat), 15; J. W. C. Bryant (Republican), 15. House of Delegates, A. C. Spessard, 15; J. W. C. Bryant, 15. Commonwealth's Attorney, W. M. Allen (Democrat), 10; David A. Stokes (Republican), 1; R. C. Stokes, 11. County Treasurer, J. D. Mussette, 21; Sheriff, A. C. Sizer, 21; Supervisor, S. G. Corbitt, 6; C. J. Myers was elected to the House of Delegates from this district also without opposition. Other county officers elected without opposition were H. C. Joyner, treasurer; J. B. Beard, sheriff, and O. L. Evans, Commonwealth's attorney.
F. B. Tyler was elected without opposition supervisor for Elion district, and L. E. Parr for Pedlar district.
In Temperance district, J. H. Fulcher was elected over W. A. Mays and E. G. Staples by a large majority. Fulcher carried Temperance, his home precinct, by a vote of 112 out of 114. He also carried Elion by 114 majority. The hottest fight in the county was for supervisor in Courthouse district. The present indications are that A. H. Moore has defeated T. V. Richardson by a vote of 10 to 10 majority. At Courthouse, Moore won by 75. Richardson carried Mayflower by 115. Hicks and Riverville are to be heard from. Hicks is expected to go for Richardson and Riverville for Moore, but it is thought that Moore's majority at Riverville will be sufficient to elect him. Moore is known as the fighting parson from a fight which he had with ex-Judge Campbell here about a year ago.
The present indications are that Treasurer J. R. Peebles, in Nelson county, has defeated Mr. B. L. Lee, who had 100 majority. Seven precincts heard from give Lee a majority of 57, but the precincts yet to be heard from are thought to be strongly for Peebles. All Democratic candidates for district offices win by good majority.

Rife, of Waynesboro, by 353, and Highland county, for the House, cury Staunton and Augusta county over J. A. Bell and Rev. John H. Taylor, on independent, temperance ticket with Rife.
In Staunton the vote was close, Echols receiving 117 majority. Churchman and Walker, 48. The organization Republicans voted solidly with the Independents, while the Yost faction voted with the Democrats. About two-thirds registered vote was cast, much of the remainder being disqualified by non-payment of poll tax. The day was beautiful and the election quiet. Highland elects Jones, Commonwealth's Attorney over Colaw.

DINWIDDIE.
DINWIDDIE COURTHOUSE, VA., November 5.—The Democratic candidates for the General Assembly had no opposition in Dinwiddie. Neither did the county officers, except in the case of treasurer, S. Y. Gilliam, the Republican incumbent, was opposed by John Hargrave (Democrat), and the latter appears to have been elected. Nine out of fifteen precincts give Hargrave a majority of 38. Of the remaining precincts Hargrave is thought to have carried three and Gilliam two. There is little or no doubt of Hargrave's election.

FAUQUIER.

WARRENTON, VA., November 5.—Incomplete returns from a majority of the precincts in Fauquier indicate the election of M. M. Green, Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates, by a majority estimated at 400, over A. D. Kelly, Independent Democratic candidate. C. C. Carlin, Democratic candidate for Congress, will carry this county by 600 majority over Howard (Republican). The Republicans will elect one supervisor, W. C. Ralls, G. L. Hon. Joseph Stebbins, Jr., and Mr. John W. Hodges are elected to the House of Delegates.
The returns thus far give Shepherd a majority of 41 over Ballou for sheriff. The missing precincts, though small, to be heard from may change this last majority, but the first named gentlemen are undoubtedly elected, and are Democrats. Major Edmondson is a very happy man over his election, as Kerns won out before.
